

Representative Alex Dallman is a lifelong resident of the 41st Assembly District, having been born and raised in Markesan, WI. Upon graduation from Markesan High School, he went on to receive a Bachelor of Science Degree in Political Science from Edgewood College.

Alex has been devoted to serving his community whenever he can. He began his career in constituent services for the Office of Congressman Glenn Grothman, which serves Wisconsin's 6th Congressional District and encompasses the majority of the 41st State Assembly District. Through his work on behalf of the Congressman, Alex specialized in assisting constituents in the areas of veterans affairs and tax issues.

Alex Also served as Outreach Representative for the Office of Congressman Glenn Grothman. From his time working in the public sector and meeting with people from across central Wisconsin, Alex has realized the negative impact that bureaucratic red tape and regulation have on businesses and individuals. He has also learned that staying connected to the communities that you serve plays a vital role in proper governance.

Alex currently resides in Green Lake and stays very active in the community and throughout the area.
