The Online LILI Curriculum

The Leadership in Life Institute's online curriculum is based on the leadership writings of Stephen Covey, John Maxwell, Jim Collins and Kouzes & Posner. Each of the six sessions involves interactive learning in a small group setting.

Session 1 Identifying One's Self

Participants get to know one another, assess their own strengths and identify their personal learning style. Topics include the Kolb Learning Style Inventory – understanding yourself and others; what makes a leader that constituents want to follow and self-talk and rational thinking.

Session 4 Developing the Leaders Around You

The class explores team-building and learns to work with others effectively to achieve unique goals. Session four topics include team-building skills and Covey's Habit #3 and #4 – Put Things First and Think Win-Win.

Session 2 Mastering One's Self

The class explores leadership fundamentals as participants analyze their own vision and mission. This session focuses on the six disciplines of credibility, Maxwell's laws of leadership and creating a vision to define your direction for the future.

Session 5 Someday All This Will Be... Whose?

Participants move from independence to interdependence. This session's topics cover how to empower others through mentoring and collaboration and Covey's Habit #5 and #6 – Seek First to Understand and Synergy.

Session 3 Developing One's Self

Participants are encouraged as they develop a business plan and apply the self-mastery skills learned in Session Two. Topics for session three include Steven Covey's Habit #1 (Be Proactive) and Steven Covey's Habit #2 (Begin with the End in Mind).

Session 6 The Journey Begins

The final session serves as commencement and transition. Responsibility and renewal are discussed along with the hallmarks of leadership. This last session focuses on reflection of personal strengths/weaknesses, conflict resolution, and pursuing excellence in all aspects of your life.
