

DO YOU AGREE ?

Insurance and financial services are valuable to my customers.

Frustrating and burdensome laws will keep me from meeting the needs of my clients.

A constitutional system of democracy is predicated on the involvement of individuals.

Participating in the campaigns of candidates is an important mission for NAIFA.

Active and regular discussion between NAIFA members and elected officials is the best way to educate lawmakers about my profession.

Customers I serve should not have their financial products taxed arbitrarily.

Then you should be contributing to IFAPAC!
