

Leon Hemphill is the Sales and Marketing Director for Capitol Body Shop's four locations in the Jackson, MS area. He has been in collision repair and related industries for more than forty years as a technician, appraiser, manager, and training facilitator. Leon currently serves on the Mississippi Department of Education's Automotive Technology Advisory Board and is on the Collision Technology Advisory Boards of several of Mississippi's Community Colleges.

Leon oversees Capitol Body Shop's Continuing Education program and is a certified CE instructor for the Axalta Coatings Division of DuPont Industries.

Leon and his wife Anita are native Mississippians and reside in Brandon, MS. They have three sons and six granddaughters.