

Robert Aylor

Certified Public Accountant

Union, Kentucky
859.912.2988
robert@aylorcpa.com

Years Experience 12

Focus

Individual and privately held business taxation

Tax planning and consulting

Financial accounting and advisory services

Robert's approach to tax and accounting consultation combines his obsession with number driven data with a genuine passion for listening to and understanding clients' unique needs and challenges. Leveraging over a decade of experience providing individual and business tax services to a diverse clientele, Robert has developed specific techniques to maintain compliance across the complicated tax landscape.

Emphasizing the planning process, Robert utilizes his expert knowledge of tax regulations to help his clients understand their individual situations and then find creative solutions for the best possible outcomes.

Robert is a Northern Kentucky native, and he loves spending time with his family and introducing his children to new activities. He enjoys hiking, wrestling, and other hobbies that contribute to an active lifestyle.

EDUCATION

Northern Kentucky University, M.S., Accountancy
Northern Kentucky University, B.S., Communication Studies

PROFESSIONAL & CIVIC AFFILIATIONS

American Institute of Certified Public Accountants
Kentucky Society of Certified Public Accountants