

Tom Petersen is a senior partner at Petersen International Underwriters, the largest Lloyd's Coverholder specializing in Disability insurance programs. With over 35 years' experience in the disability insurance industry, Tom holds numerous professional designations and has authored hundreds of articles for numerous trade journals. Tom also has taught insurance programs within the industry (LUTC) as well as for numerous College financial classes (UCLA and Cal State Northridge).